THE GUESTS OF THE IVY LANE INN

Celebrate in Honor of G. Washington, Esqr., With Brilliancy and Splendor.

MIRTH AND SCUPPERNONG IN PLENTY.

The anniversary of the birth of George Washington was delightfully celebrated at Harbor evening by the guests of the Ivy Lane Inn. The host and hostess presided at table loaded with delicious and appetizing foods for almost sixty people. It was one of the most delightful occasions, with all the gallantry of the past, interspersed with an occasional toast in supporting to the health of their husbands, brothers and men folk. The enthusiastic outburst of patriotism per every man to his host to equal the evening a grand success and it was one long to be remembered.

Under flavorous having found their way about the tables the toastmaster, Wm. E. Diefendorff, of Fortpisino, made a brief opening address, and this was followed by singing "America" with a violin accompaniment by Prof. W. W. Vinal. The first to be introduced was Mr. Harry F. Stanley, of Whitehall, who talked in a most thrilling manner "The Old Continentals." "Paul Revere" could not be omitted, as this beautiful poem was delightfully rendered by Mr. Edward A. Greene, of Roosevelta. The speech of the evening was made by Col. Edwards, of St. Paul, who gave interestingly of the early military career of Washington and wound up his patriotic remarks with an appropriate poem by Lord Byron, Colonel Edwards, of Newberg, then read a poem by request of the toastmaster interpolated, in most flattering words, his fellow lawyer and neighbor, Judge Albert J. Roger. The Judge easily made good his introduction. He spoke interestingly of kennedy settlements in this country and the influence of the Scotchmen struggling under English oppression, of the great war for independence under the leadership of that climax patriot, Washington, and then paid his respects in elegant words, to the heroes of the revolution. He closed his address by telling, in his own unique way, an Irish story which brought down the house. The toastmaster next introduced that silver speaker Col. Contine, who sandid himself in an effective and stirring address, "America." He spoke of the great statesmen and patriots of revolutionary times, of the development of the federal constitution, of the marvel on earth to greatness of the young republic, of the great civil war which swept brother against brother, of the deep sorrows of that bloody struggle and of a united country which had become one of the great world powers. His speech was closed by a masterly eulogy on the American statesman and patriot and the American flag.

A hearty rendition of "Auld Lang Syne" brought to an end a most interesting and instructive celebration.

THE PACKARD SKETCH TALK.

The Alice Packard Sketch" Lecture, the third of the Lyceum entertainments, at the Baptist church, was a pleasing one in all respects and fully merited the large audience which greeted Mr. Packard and generously showed its appreciation of his work.

Mr. Packard is certainly a most versatile entertainer and his songs brought as ready applause as his pencil sketches and word pictures, which abounded in humor, pathos or admonition to suit the subject in hand.

His "Types of Uncle Sam's Folk" were excellent; his sketch of the most wedded to money-getting was fine indeed, and his final color-picture of the old homestead was superb. He held his audience in such rapt attention for nearly two hours that his dismissal appeared abrupt.

BULLS TO THE RESCUE.

(By United Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Realizing that yesterday's bear campaign, if successful, would in inevitably re-sult in a financial panic that might prove as far-reaching in its consequences as that of October, 1907, the bull interests of Wall street rallied today to the support of active standard railway and industrial stocks. The result was that while the market was irregular and feverish there was no sensational slump, and most securities recovered again.

The London market was off in the early hours but responded promptly to the buoyant tone of New York exchange. The general market conditions are pointing experts.

MME. CALVÈ WILL SING.

* * *

Madame Emma Calve, prima donna and the world's most renowned singer, will be with us about March 10 to 15th C. F. Burgman, of the Wilsonia opera house, received the following letter from Madame Calve:

Habana, Cuba, 17 de Feb., de 1909.

Dear Mr. Burgman:

I hear with regret of the destruction of the Clarendon Hotel at Seabreeze. If you still think it advisable for me, under these circumstances, to give a concert in your opera house please inform me by return mail and I will arrange for a definite day between March 10th and 15th to be with you with my company.

Yours truly, EMMA CALVE,
Hotel Sevilla, Havana, Cuba.

Mr. Burgman is making all arrangements for the advent of Madame Calve and so informed the prima donna. Already many seats have been secured for the occasion by the residents of Daytona and Seabreeze, and it looks as if the capacity of Wilsonia opera house will be taxed to its utmost.

SEABREEZE TAKES ACTION.

* * *

At a large and enthusiastic public meeting of the citizens of Seabreeze, held in Wilsonia opera house, Monday night, the following resolutions were unanimously carried:

Resolved, That we, the citizens and property owners of Seabreeze, herewith express our heartfelt regret at the sudden and unlooked for destruction of the magnificent Clarendon Hotel.

We look upon the destruction of the Clarendon Hotel as a loss to our community far reaching in its consequences to the development of our town and the prosperity of our citizens, and feel that every inducement should be extended by the individual citizens of our town, and its duly elected municipal officers and government body looking toward the reconstruction of the hotel.

Resolved That we here in public meeting assembled, extend to our Mayor and fellow-citizen, Dr. E. L. Potter, our sincere sympathy at this great loss, and for him in these, his hours of severe trial.

Resolved, That we urge upon the Town Council of Seabreeze and the individual members thereof to give every possible municipal aid within their power to Dr. E. L. Potter and his associates which will lead to aid in the reconstruction of the hotel.

INVESTS IN REAL ESTATE.

* * *

J. J. Randall, president of the Freeport (Long Island) Bank, and a wealthy real estate man of that city, has purchased the S. H. Coleman property, on South Ridgewood avenue, for a winter home.

Mr and Mrs. Randall, who have been in the city for about two weeks have become greatly interested in Daytona and say, as do many others, that for natural beauty it surpasses anything they have ever seen.

Mr. Randall is known as the "Father of Freeport," for going there when the place was but a small hamlet, twenty odd years ago, he has, by buying and developing large tracts of land, largely aided in making it what it is today, a modern, up-to-date city of over 5,000 population.

Among his other projects, Mr. Randall has excavated two large canals, bringing salt water to the doors of Freeport, which was originally a mile from the ocean, and reclaiming many acres of salt marsh.

There are similar tracts of marsh land in this vicinity, both north and south of Daytona, which are but awaiting the developing hand of some progressive one like Mr. Randall to bring them from barren wastes to valuable building sites and fertile gardens. Possibly Mr. Randall may later on become interested enough in this section to take the matter up himself.

Mr and Mrs. Randall toured the East Coast last season, and during the time were at Hotel Ormond, and it was at that time that they first saw and became interested in Daytona. Daniel es is Mr. Randall home at present, but they expect to leave today for Freeport.

Still another delay has occurred in the completion of the Smithcraft drawbridge, the pier proving to light for the 40-foot span required. S. H. Gove went to Jacksonville yesterday to get the necessary material to overcome this difficulty.

Hankins says—

Sponges and Chamois of every and soft texture are not always easily found—if you will call, we will show you an elegant lot, suitable for polishing the most delicate furniture.

No home is complete without these two articles.

HANKINS, The Druggist,
AT THE PLACE
Where Volusia Meets Beach.

LET'S SAVE THE BIRDS.

* * *

R. J. Parotti, warden of the Mosquito Inlet Bird and Game Reservation, was in the city yesterday bringing up William Dutcher, who had been down on an official tour of inspection. Mr. Dutcher was highly pleased with the outlook for the bird preservation.

Mr. Parotti, as warden, seems to be the right man in the right place. Already a very noticeable increase in bird life is apparent and if this spring and summer proves favorable for incubation another winter will witness a sight beautiful to look upon. With no bird murderers thundering among the new hatch they will become tame and those who love them for their beautiful plumage, quaint forms and ringing habits will be permitted to watch them at close range.

Capt. Parotti says some blood-thirsty hunters from Ormond were playing havoc with birds up at Dead lake a few days ago as he sailed by from St. Augustine. Every good citizen deems such needless destruction such barbarity.

HOW VOTE STANDS NOW.

The count on Monday evening in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest showed that most any one of an ending hacks possible now.

In Daytona the High School had a large vote, nearly 10,000, but even at that the Bobs made a gain of over 10,000. The Eastern Star had a large vote but the Elks made a gain of several thousand on them. However, some one will have to go a great deal faster than any is now going in order to overtake the High School, for even now the school is using second at a remarkable rate.

Outside of Daytona the situation is much the same. The Wilsonia Opera House is still ahead, but the Kingston School made a gain of over 9,000, while at the same time the Seabreeze High School made a gain of 10,000 on the Kingston School.

Everything points to a close finish. Miss Elsie Coates passing the Seabreeze Congregational Church was the only change in standing.

Voters will please be careful to vote the ballot on the front and not on the back.

While at the front door of Allen's Haunted Show last Monday evening the contents of the rear pocket of James M. Osborn caught low from a lantern he was carrying. Had not an attaché of the show smelled the smoke and searched for the fire, Mr Osborn probably would have been painfully burned, for the fire was spreading with great rapidity.

COOPER IS CHARGED WITH GRAFT.

Prosecutor Fitzhugh Says He Will Prove Him a Defaulter For More Than $400,000.

NEW SENSATIONS IN THE CASE.

(By United Press.)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 24.—Col. Duncan Cooper resumed the stand today in the trial of himself, Robin Cooper and John Sharp for the murder of ex-senator Carmack. The examination was completed within thirty minutes after he took the stand. On cross examination Captain Fitzhugh went into Colonel Cooper's record.

Fitzhugh said: "We propose to show that Colonel Cooper was defaulter over $400 000, and we will trace his defalcations from 1892 to the present time."

Cooper identified bill presentation which admitted Cooper's appropriating $351.08 received on land sale while he was Master of Maury county.

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—President Roosevelt, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Longworth, Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Secretary Loeb arrived here by special car early today attending the funeral of Stewart Douglas Robinson the President's nephew.

Mr. Roosevelt's son, Kermit, came here yesterday. President-elect Taft joined the party at the church. The President and party returned to Washington at noon.

SPECULATOR ENDS LIFE.

(By United Press.)

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Ruined by the sudden decline of stocks in which he had been speculating C. S. Alden, a retired member of the firm of Abeles & Schwartz, clubbed, shot and killed himself today in the lavatory of the store. The body was found by the janitor of the building this morning. Alden called on his bookkeeper sorry the morning and told him he had been wiped out by the bear market.

BUILDING OUTLOOK EXCELLENT.

IT'S A THREE-CITY MOVEMENT.

* * *

The building outlook for Daytona, Seabreeze and Dayton Beach is excellent. Already many contracts have been let for new buildings, mostly residences, and numbers of others are investigating with a view to building.

The new $40,000 city school building is to go up this summer, the waterworks plant is to be built, W. H. Peters is beginning a handsome brick business house, a splendid new residence is to be built on Ivy Lane; the prospect is good for several others on this side.

Contractor Burdick, of Seabreeze already has the contract for a number of handsome new residences, among them one for J. B. Chelborr and one for C. C. Gillette. He says the prospect for building at Seabreeze this summer concerns almost to a boom.

B. F. Martindale is building a home for a Mrs. Howard. It is of concrete, and will be quite an artistic addition to Seabreeze. L. M. Drake is also putting up a home for a Mr. Garfield, and A. E. Mason is putting up a house for E. G. Kittredge.

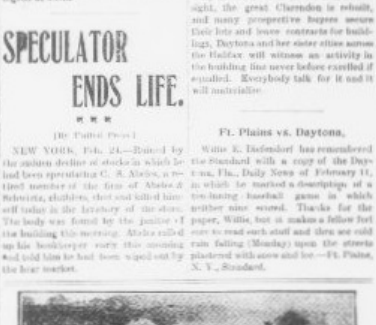
This is only a started. Messrs. H. J. Mellor and Fred Stoner of the Bond Lumber Company, say the building prospect is the best in years. Norman B Dayton is very optimistic regarding the building outlook, and, like the Bond Lumber Company, is laying in an unusual supply of material in anticipation of the greater demand.

Large consignments of material have already arrived, and several carloads of it have gone across to Seabreeze for use in the handsome homes now under way.

If, in addition to all of this now in sight, the great Clarendon is rebuilt, and many prospective buyers secure their lots and leave contracts for buildings, Daytona and her sister cities across the Halifax will witness an activity in the building line never before excelled if equalled. Everybody talk for it and it will materialize.

Ft. Plains vs. Daytona.

Willis K. Diefendorf has remembered the Standard with a copy of the Daytona, Fla., Daily News of February 17, in which he marked a description of a ten-inning baseball game in which neither nine scored. Thanks for the paper, Willie, but it makes a fellow feel sore to read such stuff and then see cold rain falling (Monday) upon the streets plastered with snow and ice.—Ft. Plains, N. Y., Standard.



TWO VIEWS OF THE OPERATIONS NEAR THE GATUN DAM.

William H. Taft believes the Panama canal will easily be in operation in four years. When Colonel Goethals told him that ships would be crossing the Isthmus in January, 1915, Mr. Taft said the engineer was too modest. These pictures were taken during the visit of the president elect to the canal zone.

He spoke interestingly of the early settlements in this country along the Atlantic coast, of the colonies struggling under English oppression, of the great war for independence under the leadership of that climax patriot, Washington, and then paid his respects, in elegant words, to the heroes of the revolution. He closed his address by telling, in his own unique way, an Irish story which brought down the house. The toastmaster next introduced that gifted speaker Col. Coutine, who outdid himself in an effective and stirring address on "America." He spoke of the great statesmen and patriots of revolutionary times, of the developments of the Federal constitution, of the marvelous march to greatness of the young republic, of the great civil war which arrayed brother against brother, of the divine outcome of that bloody struggle and of a reunited country which had become one of the great world powers. His speech was closed by a masterly eulogy on the American statesman and patriot and the American flag.

NEW SENSATIONS IN THE CASE.

(By United Press.)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Feb. 24.—Col. Duncan Cooper resumed the stand today in the trial of himself, Robin Cooper and John Sharp for the murder of ex-Senator Carmack. The examination was completed within thirty minutes after he took the stand On cross examination Captain Fitzhugh went into Colonel Cooper's record.

Fitzhugh said: "We propose to show that Colonel Cooper was defaulter over $100 000, and we will trace his defalcations from 1883 to the present time."

Cooper identified bill proconfesso which admitted Cooper's appropriating $351.08 received on land sale while he was Master of Maury county.

PRESIDENT AT FUNERAL.

[By United Press.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 24—President Roosevelt, accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Longworth, Miss Ethel Roosevelt and Secretary Loeb arrived here by special car early today attending the funeral of Stewart Douglas Robinson the President's nephew.

Mr. Roosevelt's son, Kermit, came here yesterday. President-elect Taft joined the party at the church. The President and party returned to Washington at noon.

SPECULATOR ENDS LIFE.

[By United Press.]

NEW YORK, Feb. 24.—Ruined by the sudden decline of stocks in which he had been speculating C. S. Abeles, a retired member of the firm of Abeles & Schwirtz, clothiers, shot and killed himself today in the lavatory of the store. The body was found by the janitor of the building this morning. Abeles called up his bookkeeper early this morning and told him he had been wiped out by the bear market.

BUILDING OUTLOOK EXCELLENT.

Unusual Activity Among Real Estate Men—Contractors Are Getting Busy.

IT'S A THREE-CITY MOVEMENT.

The building outlook for Daytona, Seabreeze and Dayton Beach is excellent. Already many contracts have been let for new buildings, mostly residences, and numbers of others are investigating with a view to building.

The new $40,000 city school building is to go up this summer, the waterworks plant is to be built, W H. Peters is beginning a handsome brick business house, a splendid new residence is to be built on Ivy Lane; the prospect is good for several others on this side.

Contractor Burdick, of Seabreeze already has the contract for a number of handsome new residences, among them one for J. B. Ubelhoer and one for C. C. Gillette. He says the prospect for building at Seabreeze this summer amounts almost to a boom.

B. F. Martindale is building a home for a Mrs. Howard. It is of concrete, and will be quite an artistic addition to Seabreeze. L. M. Drake is also putting up a house for a Mr. Garfield, and A. E. Mason is putting up a house for E. G. Kittridge.

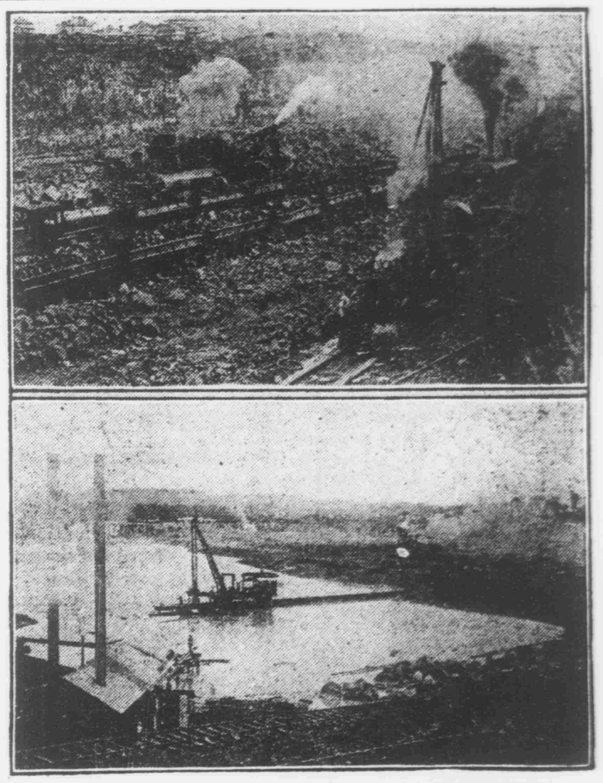
This is only a starter. Messrs. R J. Malby and Fred Stones of the Bond Lumber Company, say the building prospect is the best in years. Norman S Dayton is very optomistic regarding the building outlook, and, like the Bond Lunder Company, is laying in an unusual supply of material in anticipation of the greater demand.

Large consignments of material have already arrived, and several carloads of it have gone across to Seabreeze for use in the handsome homes now under way.

If, in addition to all of this now in sight, the great Clarendon is rebuilt, and many prospective buyers secure their lots and leave contracts for buildings, Daytona and her sister cities across the Halifax will witness an activity in the building line never before excelled if equalled. Everybody talk for it and it will materialize.

Ft. Plains vs. Daytona,

Willis E. Diefendorf has remembered the Standard with a copy of the Daytona, Fla., Daily News of February 11, in which he marked a description of a ten-inning baseball game in which neither nine scored. Thanks for the paper, Willis, but it makes a fellow feel sore to read such stuff and then see cold rain falling (Monday) upon the streets plastered with snow and ice.—Ft. Plains, N. Y., Standard.



TWO VIEWS OF THE OPERATIONS NEAR THE GATUN DAM.

William H. Taft believes the Panama canal will easily be in operation in four years. When Colonel Goethals told him that ships would be crossing the isthmus in January, 1915, Mr. Taft said the engineer was too modest. These pictures were taken during the visit of the president elect to the canal zone.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Feb. 24—At the meeting called by C. F. Burgess at Wilmans opera house, Monday night, a committee was appointed to ascertain from Dr. Fisher, who was not at the meeting, exactly what concessions he asked of the town, and afterwards to get an expression from the property holders as to their willingness to concede the same, to be reported at an adjourned meeting Saturday night. The committee were: W. L. Sanford, Hugh, R. M. Knowlton, H. G. Wilson, R. Swift. It is understood today that the concession asked by Dr. Fisher and his associates is the abandonment of Ocean boulevard from Grandview avenue to ocean, in consideration of which the company proposed to erect a $30,000 hotel building.

Postmaster Britton and his capable assistant, Miss Jones, are working about fourteen hours a day to keep up the office work. Relief has been promised them by way of a second assistant.

Mrs. George A. Flagg, of Springfield, Mass., a guest of The Princess Issena, died at 6 o'clock on Monday evening of heart failure, after a sickness of only a few hours. The body was shipped North from Wagner & Maley's undertaking parlors yesterday. Her two daughters, who were here with their mother when she came to die, accompanied the remains.

Miss Minnie Kelley yesterday sold the Walker beach cottage to B. F. Martindale, of Sanford. Mr. Martindale is to have possession in thirty days. Mr. Miller and family are now occupying this cottage, but expect the carpenters to have their new home in readiness for them by that time.

H. E. Neilson, wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. el. Neilson, who have been located in Valley street, have leased Col. Stafford's cottage, Bellevue, for the remainder of the season.

C. F. Burgess was in New Smyrna yesterday.

Messrs. Hel enelsey and Blue made a boat trip to the Inlet yesterday, and had a fine day of it, but found the fishing poor.

The horseshoes have been laid for a new residence for Mrs. H. W. Brigham, on a lot recently purchased on Valley street. It will be a 5-room bungalow.

Comforting.

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 24—Monday evening the official board of the M. E. Church met to take up the question of church enlargement. Messrs. Burdick and Burkhart submitted plans for extension and for a new wing at the rear of the church. After some discussion, modification of the plans were suggested and the committee instructed to report at an adjourned meeting Wednesday night.

The E. Kilbride new building on Valley street is beginning to loom up in shapely proportions. The frame is up and the side walls are partly shingled.

Mr. Durham, of Connecticut, is a guest at The Pinehurst.

Miss Irene Kelly entertained a number of her young friends at her home on Peninsula Drive Monday from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m. The young people enjoyed an open fire "in the open," and afterward adjourned to the parlors where various games were indulged in and enjoyed. Later delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served in Washington style.

Mrs. Jenner and son, H. W. Jenner, of Jacksonville, are guests of friend, Miss Moser, who have been occupying the Fountain cottage the month past, will leave the latter part of the week for St. Augustine, homeward bound.

Mrs. Katherine Gaskill, Mrs. Ida Shields and Mrs. R. A. Kibbe, Stuberites, are spending the winter in the Breakers cottages, have returned from a trip to the Gulf, via St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Hilliard opens a millinery business in the McCullough building this week.

The Clarendon orchestra rendered a splendid program at the Seaside Inn Sunday evening. The Misses Pearl Spaulding and Dorothy Hubbell sang solos and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests and visiting outsiders.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hawes, Miss Sallie Hawes, Corning, N. Y.; J. W. Howard, Miss Howard, Aberdeen, Miss., are among yesterdays arrivals at the Daytona Beach Hotel.

A Tremendous Task.

"So you are going to study law?"

"Yes."

"Going to make a specialty of criminal law?"

"Corporation law?"

"No. Both are too easy. What I want to be sure of is getting reliable information as to what months in the year still days in the week it is permitted to shoot certain game in the various sections of the country."—Washington Star.

A Patron of Art.

"Do you enjoy reading all the extravagant praise that is printed about that new singer?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Chuffy. "It kind of helps me to feel that maybe those tickets were worth what I paid for 'em."—Washington Star.

Seabreeze News

SEABREEZE, Feb. 24.—At the meeting called by C. F. Burgman, at Wilmans opera house, Monday night, a committee was appointed to ascertain from Dr. Potter, who was not at the meeting, exactly what concessions he asked of the town, and afterwards to get an expression from the property holders as to their willingness to concede the same, to be reported at an adjourned meeting Saturday night. The committee were: W. L. Sonntag, S. Haigh, B. M Knowlton, H. G. Wilson, R. Swift. It is understood today that the concession asked by Dr. Potter and his associates is the abandonment of Ocean boulevard from Grandview avenue to ocean, in consideration of which the company propose to erect a $30,000 hotel building.

Postmaster Britton and his capable assistant, Miss Eaves, are working about fourteen hours a day to keep up the office work. Relief has been promised them by way of a second assistant.

Mrs. George A. Flagg, of Springfield Mass., a guest of The Princess Issena, died at 6 o'clock Monday evening, of heart failure, after a sickness of only a few hours. The body was shipped North from Bingham & Maley's undertaking parlors yesterday. Her two daughters, who were here with their mother left on same train.

Miss Minnie Kelley yesterday sold the Walker beach cottage to B. F. Martindale, of Sanford. Mr. Martindale is to have possession in thirty days Mr. Miller and family are now occupying this cottage, but expect the carpenters to have their new home in readiness for them by that time.

H. E. Nusbaum, wife and parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nusbaum, who have been located on Valley street, have leased Col. Shaffner's cottage, Bide-a-Wee, for the remainder of the season.

C. F. Burgman was in New Smyrna yesterday.

Messrs. McLanahan and Bliss made a boat trip to the Inlet yesterday, and had a fine day of it, but found the fishing poor.

The foundation has been laid for a new cottage for Mrs. H. W. Brigham, on a lot recently purchased on Valley street. It will be a 5-room bungalow.

Comforting.

Condemned Man (to his lawyer)—It's a long sentence, sir, to be sent to prison for life. Lawyer (inclined to a more hopeful view)—Yes, it does seem long but perhaps you won't live a great while.

Of Good Material.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 24—Monday evening the official board of the M. E. Church met to take up the question of church enlargement. Messrs. Burdick and Buckland submitted plans for extension at the southwest end of the church. After some discussion, modification of the plans were suggested and the committee instructed to report at an adjourned meeting Wednesday night.

The E. E. Kittridge new building on Valley street is beginning to loom up in shapely proportions. The frame is up and the side walls are partly shingled.

Mr. Durham, of Conneticut, is a guest at The Pinehurst.

Miss Irene Esch entertained a number of her young friends at her home on Peninsula Drive Monday from 5:00 to 8:00 p. m. The young people enjoyed an oyster bake "in the open," and afterward adjourned to the parlors where various games and charades were enjoyed. Later delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake were served a la Washington style

Mrs. Jenner and son, H. W. Jenner, of Lawrenceville, Ill., and friend, Miss Greer, who have been occupying the Freeman cottage the month past, will leave the latter part of the week for St. Augustine, homeward bound.

Mrs Katherine Gallock, Mrs. Ida Schultz and Mrs E. E. Kibbie Stalker, tourists spending the winter in the Bleekman cottages, have returned from a trip to the Gulf, via St. Petersburg.

Mrs. Hibbard opens a millinery business in the McCullough building this week.

The Clarendon orchestra rendered a splendid program at the Seaside Inn Sunday evening. The Misses Pearl Spaulding and Dorothy Hubbell sang solos, and the evening was thoroughly enjoyed by the guests and visiting cottagers.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hawks, Miss Sallie Hawks, Corning, N. Y.; J. W. Howard, Miss Howard, Aberdeen, Miss., are among yesterdays arrivals at the Daytona Beach Hotel.

A Tremendous Task.

"So you are going to study law?"

"Yes."

"Going to make a specialty of criminal law?"

"No."

"Corporation law?"

"No. Both are too easy. What I want is to be accurately and reliably informed as to what months in the year and days in the week it is permitted to shoot certain game in the various sections of the country."—Washington Star.

A Patron of Art.

"So you enjoy reading all the extravagant praise that is printed about that opera singer?"

"Yes," answered Mr. Cumrox. "It kind of helps me to feel that maybe those tickets were worth what I paid for 'em."—Washington Star.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphalium-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandahs looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed boy lean perch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk rising upward with its floundering load be matched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell road one has the impression of a fairy path with cliffs draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact is apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became so easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park.

And so for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and heaven of indifferent or evil nature one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For avers visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to step forward and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In our yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the jessamine are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall canes.

The birds fit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are acres of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

ALL THE WAY ROUND.

An Odd Sort of Dinner and the Reason of It.

Lord Palmerston, a Scottish lord of session, usually retired to his country residence during the part of the year when the court does not function. Like many of the Scottish aristocracy, equally like from a similar cause, went to shoot, and, happening to pass Lord P.'s property, he met his lordship, who, inviting Ireland Jolly to take, or, as he said, to 'tak', a family dinner with himself, his wife and daughter.

John accepted the invitation, and they all assembled at the hour of dinner. There was a joint of roasted veal at the head of the table and stewed veal at the bottom, veal cutlets in the middle, calf's head on one side of the soup, and veal collops on the other, calf's foot jelly between the soup and roast veal and calf's brains between the stewed veal and the soup.

"Now," said his lordship in his own blunt way, "Mr. Hagart, you may very likely think this an odd sort of dinner, but you'll no wonder when you hear the cause of it. We keep nae cowgate, Mr. Hagart, and my domicile here centers for our table. The way we do is just this: We kill a beast, as it were, today, and we just begin to cook it at one side of the head, travel down that side, turn the tail and just gang back again by the other side to where we began."

THE MISSING MISSIVE.

One Romance of Uncle Sam's Dead Letter Office.

Something like 2,000,000 letters annually fall of delivery to the United States owing to insufficient postage or incorrect addresses. The dead letter office at Washington employs a large force of clerks to handle these. The packages that have been received at the dead letter office have contained false teeth, glass eyes, brass keys and thousands of other things that one would never expect to find in the mails.

It would be interesting to know how many engagements have been broken, how many friends have been estranged, how many fond hearts have not been reunited, how many deals have fallen through, how much money has been lost and how many quarrels have been prevented by letters that never came.

A pretty romance was revealed at the dead letter office the other day when a young woman called there to see if a carefully addressed letter had been received. It had, and she was greatly relieved. "I heard that Jack was untrue," she said, "and wrote him breaking our engagement. The day after I broke it found out that I was wrong. My heart was almost broken, but Jack kept right on coming to see me and never mentioned the letter. I began to think I must have misinterpreted it and find that I did. It must have been fate. Now he will never know." St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Flattered Him.

"I feel sure Miss Smith is to love with you," said a lady to her brother.

"Do you? It sounds too good to be true."

"Well, I heard her say yesterday that politeness in a man is not really a fault, but a sign of character."

Seedless Fruits.

Science so far has failed to furnish any explanation of the mystery of seedless fruits. They are not the outcome of the work of man. Man perpetuates them. He does no more. The seedless orange was found in a state of wildlessness.—Vegetarian.

The Placid, Pellucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy veranda's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid an liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variagated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

ALL THE WAY ROUND.

An Odd Sort of Dinner and the Reason of It.

Lord Polkemmet, a Scottish lord of session, usually retired to his country residence during the part of the year when the court does no business. John Hagart, the Scottish advocate, equally idle from a similar cause, went to shoot, and, happening to pass Lord P.'s property, he met his lordship, who politely invited John to take, or, as he said, to tak', a family dinner with himself, his wife and daughter.

John accepted the invitation, and they all assembled at the hour of dinner. There was a joint of roasted veal at the head of the table and stewed veal at the bottom, veal soup in the middle, calf's head on one side of the soup and veal cutlets on the other, calf's foot jelly between the soup and roast veal and calf's brains between the stewed veal and the soup.

"Noo," said his lordship in his own blunt way, "Mr. Hagart, you may very likely think this an odd sort of dinner, but ye'll no wonder when you hear the cause of it. We keep nae company, Mr. Hagart, and my daughter here caters for our table. The way we do is just this: We kill a beast, as it were, today, and we just begin to cook it at one side of the head, travel down that side, turn the tail and just gang back again by the other side to where we began."

THE MISSING MISSIVE.

One Romance of Uncle Sam's Dead Letter Office.

Something like 2,000,000 letters annually fall of delivery in the United States owing to insufficient postage or incorrect addresses. The dead letter office at Washington employs a large force of clerks to handle these. The packages that have been received at the dead letter office have contained false teeth, glass eyes, brass keys and thousands of other things that one would never expect to find in the mails.

It would be interesting to know how many engagements have been broken, how many friends have been estranged, how many fond hearts have not been reunited, how many deals have fallen through, how much money has been lost and how many quarrels have been prevented by letters that never came.

A pretty romance was revealed at the dead letter office the other day when a young woman called there to see if a wrongfully addressed letter had been received. It had, and she was greatly relieved. "I heard that Jack was untrue," she said, "and wrote him breaking our engagement. The day after I wrote I found out that I was wrong. My heart was almost broken, but Jack kept right on coming to see me and never mentioned the letter. I began to think I must have misdirected it and find that I did. It must have been fate. Now he will never know."—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

Flattered Him.

"I feel sure Miss Smith is in love with you," said a lady to her brother.

"Do you? It sounds too good to be true."

"Well, I heard her say yesterday that plainness in a man is not really a fault, but a sign of character."

Seedless Fruits.

Science so far has failed to furnish any explanation of the mystery of seedless fruits. They are not the outcome of the work of man. Man perpetuates them. He does no more. The seedless orange was found in a state of seedlessness.—Vegetarian.

Back From Cuba.

Mrs. S. Wiggins, of Second avenue, returned Wednesday morning from a visit to Havana, Cuba. Mr. Albert Bennett, who accompanied Mr. Wiggins, stopped over in Palm Beach on the way home but will probably get back tomorrow. Mr. Wiggins says the passage from Havana to Key West was very rough, only nine passengers appearing at the breakfast table. Mr. Bennett was sea sick, but Mr. Wiggins himself was very ill. They had the use of the new observation car on the East Coast Railway, kept by Mrs. Knight, of Miami. Mrs. Wiggins is now in Miami visiting her daughter, Mrs. Knight, but will be back in Daytona in time for the Fourth of July celebration.

About Eggs.

In a hen's egg only one-fifth of the substance is nutritious, one-quarter part is refuse, and the remainder, the greater portion, is water.

White shelled eggs are not quite as good as yellow ones, for they contain a little more water and a little less fat. But your purveyor knows this and frequently covers his white eggs with rouge.

Judged by the amount of nutriment a goose's egg is the most expensive. Next in order are ducks', guinea fowls', hens', turkeys' and pigeons'. Eggs contain a large quantity of sulphur, which is gratifying to the head and good for the complexion.

To get the best egg you must feed your hen on grain, and to cook it in the most digestible way you must boil half the water. Heat the water to 170 degrees and leave the egg in it for ten minutes. You will then digest every morsel. But if you boil it for three minutes no less than seventy of it will fail to be digested. Thus if you eat two eggs boiled for three minutes every day you waste five dozen in a year.—London Mail.

The Only Safe Way.

"No, I can't stay and supper," he said, with determination.

"What difference does an hour or so make now?" asked a member of the party. "Your wife will be in bed and asleep, and if she wakes up she won't know what time it is."

"Quite right, quite right," he returned. "I can feel my wife's absence any time so long as I get home before breakfast. Why, I've gone alone when she was out, kept the blinds shut, lit the gas and made her think that it was a little after 12. But, gentlemen, I can't fool the lady. I can make the room as dark as I please, but it won't make the baby weep a minute later than usual, and when she wakes up hungry it comes pretty close to being morning, and up with knives it. Gentlemen," he added as he bowed himself out, "I make it a rule to get home before the baby wakes. It's the only safe way."

A Dog Story.

At a farmhouse at which we have been staying a terrier, Rough, shares always his master's first breakfast, the bread and cream accompanying a cup of tea. These cereals he breaks off and gives to Rough, who eats the first two. Off the third he licks the cream, then carries the crust to a hen who each morning comes across the field where the fowls are kept and at the gate awaits her friend's arrival. Should others of the hens appear, Rough "barks them off" while his favorite devours her portion.—London Spectator.

Why, I've gone home when the sun was up, kept the blinds shut, lit the gas and made her think that it was a little after 12. But, gentlemen, I can't fool the baby. I can make the room as dark as I please, but it won't make the baby sleep a minute later than usual, and when she wakes up hungry it comes pretty close to being morning, and my wife knows it. Gentlemen," he added as he bowed himself out, "I make it a rule to get home before the baby wakes. It's the only safe way."

A Dog Story.

At a farmhouse at which we have been staying a terrier, Rough, shares always his master's first breakfast, the bread and cream accompanying a cup of tea. Three corners he breaks off and gives to Rough, who eats the first two. Off the third he licks the cream, then carries the crust to a hen who each morning comes across the field where the fowls are kept and at the gate awaits her friend's arrival. Should others of the hens appear, Rough "barks them off" while his favorite devours her portion.—London Spectator.

Back From Cuba.

C. G. Wiggins, of Second avenue, returned Wednesday morning from a visit to Havana, Cuba. Albert Bennett, who accompanied Mr. Wiggins, stopped over at Palm Beach on the way home but will probably get back tomorrow. Mr. Wiggins says the passage from Havana to Key West was very rough, only nine out of 156 passengers appearing at the table, of which Mr. Bennett was one. Mr. Wiggins himself was very ill. They had the use of the new observation car on its first trip from Knight's Key to Miami. Another of these cars is to be put on in order to have one each day. There is no glass in these cars and the side openings are as large as three or four of the ordinary car windows.
